Bob, my apologies for not reaching out to you earlier regarding your accident. I was perhaps overly sensitive to the request that we hold off on communicating with you. I am very sorry for what you are going through and though it will be a process to heal I pray that you find comfort and peace during those days.

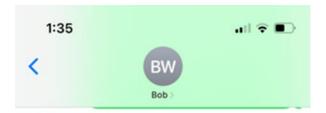

I am sure you know that it is a very difficult time here and I hope there can be a satisfactory resolution for all. Looking forward to seeing you back here and on the mend.

Thank you, lke. I am open for calls, etc. I am truly sorry for the mess that Paul has created and the turmoil with the staff that is so admirable serving this county. Please call if you need to vent, rant, or bend my ear. I have nothing better to do for a

Thank you, Ike. I am open for calls, etc. I am truly sorry for the mess that Paul has created and the turmoil with the staff that is so admirable serving this county. Please call if you need to vent, rant, or bend my ear. I have nothing better to do for a couple of weeks.... I wish I was there as there would be a reckoning and still may be upon my return.
